Carl Hayes, while playing with the local ball team Saturday, received a severe injury to his shoulder.

Mrs. Ethel Barlow and children have returned to her home in Berlin.

The boys of Groveton played the boys of Guildhall in a game of ball, Monday; score—16 to 5.

LUNENBURG

Most of the schools in town will commence Tuesday, Aug. 31st.

Fred Curtis, wife and son, have been spending a week at Rumney, N. H., guests of Mrs. Curtis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coburn.

Irving Silsby and wife of Rumney, N. H., are spending some weeks at George Silsby's, where Mrs. Silsby will assist in the care of Mrs. George Silsby, who is making a good recovery from her recent operation.

The annual fair and entertainment of the Congregational church held in the town hall last Wednesday evening was very successful. The entertainment passed off nicely and was enjoyed by the large audience present.

The body of Madam Keley of Newport, Vt., who formerly resided here, was brought to this place for burial Thursday in Riverside cemetery beside her husband, who was buried here several years ago. Her son, Rev. Chas. W. Kelley, was pastor of the M. E. church here several years and the bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends in this town.

Warren L. Simonds and Abbie C. Dodge, both of this town, were united in marriage last Wednesday evening, Aug. 25th, by Rev. Albert Gregory. Miss Marjorie Bell acted as bridesmaid and Fred Simonds of St. Johnsbury, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride was attired in a pretty gown of blue crepe de chene. Only the near friends and relatives were present. The happy couple received many gifts of silver, cut glass and linen. They are spending their honeymoon at Malden and Boston, Mass., and will be at home to friends after October first, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Stuart.

Wedding Bells at Norton.

The home of Mrs. Cora A. Nelson of Norton was given over to festivity upon the evening of September first when Edith Mildred, Mrs. Nelson's youngest daughter, was united in marriage to Mr. Leon Wilson Pulsifer of Burlington, Vt.

At 7:30 p.m., the bride, gowned in white silk crepe de chene and carrying a bouquet of bridal roses, entered on the arm of her brother, Judge Edward J. Nelson to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, which was rendered by her sister, Mrs. Herbert W. Blake, of Gardner, Mass., and was led to the groom, who with Rev. Wesley Spencer of Dixville, P. Q., was standing in a grove of ferns and seasonal flowers.

The impressive double ring ceremony according to the ritual of the Baptist church was then performed by the Reverend Wesley Spencer. Ruth Nelson and Nelson Blake, niece and nephew of the bride, acting as flower girl and ring bearer respectively. Immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Spencer rendered the solo, "Oh Fair and Sweet and Holy," and then after the usual congratulations the company adjourned to the dining room and partook of bountiful refreshments.

At a late hour Mr. and Mrs. Pulsifer left for Burlington, where Mr. Pulsifer will be employed during the coming year as teacher of Stenography at the Burlington Business College, and where they will be at home to their friends after October 1, at No. 72 North Winoski Avenue.

Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. Wesley Spencer of Dixville, Que., Judge and Mrs. E. J. Nelson of Norton, Judge and Mrs. E. J. Parsons of Island Pond, Major and Mrs. E. A. Akhurst of Coaticook, Que., Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Blake of Gardner, Mass., Mrs. Josiah Parker of Dixville, Que., and Frank Nelson of Island Pond.

Boy Singer in Lewiston.

A most interesting lad of 11 years, who is enjoying his summer in Auburn, Me., is William Patterson Atwill of Dubuque, Iowa, son of William Atwill, superintendent of the Illinois Central railroad.

Altho he does not come of a musical family, Master Atwill from a tiny boy has always loved to sing and when he was nine years old it was realized that his voice was exceptional and soon he commenced studying voice culture with Dwight Phelps, one of the most eminent instructors in the vicinity of Dubuque. For two years he has been singing in the St. John's Episcopal choir in his home city, and, altho the youngest in the choir, his voice is often heard, clear and true, above all the others and frequently he has a solo. He thoroughly enjoys his music and is ever willing to give of his talent for concerts and other entertainments.

Master Atwill kindly sang at the morning service in Trinity Episcopal church, Lewiston, Me., last Sunday, and will also have a solo there the coming Sunday. People who heard him were delighted with his voice, a soprano of wonderfully sweet musical quality and full tone.

Not only is he an unusual singer, but he is much interested in piano music and has been studying this instrument the last year with excellent success. In his regular school work, too, he ranks well. He is in the seventh grade.

Master Atwill has spent several summers in Auburn, coming to visit his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Tracy, Fourth avenue. He came East this season with his aunt, Miss Patterson, and this week they have been joined by his mother. They will soon return to Dubuque, for the schools there will open Sept. 8th.

Mr. Atwill was at one time train despatcher here. Master Atwill's mother will be remembered as Miss Elizabeth Patterson, formerly of this place.

Lancaster Fair

One of the big fairs of New Hampshire is that of the Coos & Essex Agricultural Society held in Lancaster. Extra efforts have been put forth this year to make the fair to be held on Sept. 7, 8, 9, and 10 vastly better than its predecessors. Over $500.00 has been added to the premiums and there are many special premiums in addition, including two silver cups. That the proper emphasis may be placed on the agricultural side of the fair two special exhibits will be shown that are sure to be of value to farmers. Commissioner A. J. Felker will have charge of the exhibit of the Board of Agriculture and Prof. Batchelder of the State College will have the "movable school" of that institution. Nevers' Famous Reg. Band of Concord, N. H., the finest band in New Hampshire, will be on hand the last three days.

Sept. 8 will be known as "Governor's Day" and Gov. Spaulding and other dignitaries will be present. The attractions cost the society about 50 per cent more than in any previous year. As a headline there will be Redding, whose famous exhibitions have been the talk of New England. He is the only licensed aero-pilot in Massachusetts. He will make two flights on each of the last three days of the fair and once each day takes a passenger who drops from the aeroplane with a parachute. Another leader is Dare Devil Oliver, the sensation of many big fairs. He dives from a 104 foot ladder into a shallow tank of water. There will be some good racing on each of the last three days. There will be seven races with a purse of $200.00 in each race. It is expected that more than 50 horses will be entered in these races.

Irene LaTour will be the stage entertainer and she is a contortionist of the first rank. Everything points to a big fair that will satisfy and instruct.

The Coos and Essex fair grounds from which can be obtained a splendid view of the mountains are unique in many ways. The grounds are perfectly level and from them the association has just cut a hay and grain crop valued at $400. There is no dust to annoy patrons and property is maintained in good condition.

Did the Old Man Good.

Geo. W. Clough of Prentiss, Miss., is seventy-seven years old and had trouble with his kidneys for many years. He writes that Foley Kidney Pills did him much good. He used many remedies, but this is the only one that ever helped him. No man, young or old, can afford to neglect symptoms of kidney trouble.

JOHN W. THURSTON, Island Pond.

Clever Scheme.

"Blink's wife seems to be quite a musician."

"Yes, she is a fine pianist."

"How does she keep in practice when she is away from home?"

"She carries a large muff."

"What for?"

"Just to keep her hand in!"—Pearson's Weekly.

Island Pond Musical Recital.

A large number of people gathered at the home of Mrs. H. A. Standish on Wednesday evening, Aug. 25, to listen to the annual piano recital by her class of forty pupils. From the opening number by L. M. Boulds, the company gave close attention and at the close of the program expressed themselves as much pleased with the progress of the class throughout the year. Mrs. Standish received many words of hearty commendation as a teacher. Among those from a distance were Mrs. J. B. Nourse and mother, Miss Olive J. Nourse, who is a harmony pupil of Mrs. Standish, and Ralph Thompson of Lancaster, N. H., the Misses Wheeler of Bloomfield, Blanche Paradis of Montreal, Que., Constance Donnelly of Groveton, N. H. The program ended at 10:40 and all went home feeling indebted to Mrs. Standish for another pleasant evening. The program was as follows:—

- 1 My Old Kentucky Home (Var.) Drumheller
- 2 No Surrender Duet Morrison
- 3 Sack Waltz Isabelle Castonguay Metcalf
- 4 Under the Willows Alice Wood Lindsay

Many Complaints Heard.

This summer many persons are complaining of headaches, lame backs, rheumatism, biliousness and of being "always tired." Aches, pains and ill caused by kidneys not doing their work yield quickly to Foley Kidney Pills. They help elimination, give sound sleep and make you feel better.

JOHN W. THURSTON, Island Pond.

Resourceful Woman.

"Scientists claim that women of the future will positively be baldheaded."

"Don't let that worry you. If they haven't anything to pin it to they can glue it on!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Car Service Efficiency Meeting.

The largest meeting of the car service efficiency was held in the Y. M. C. A. building, Tuesday, Aug. 31st, there being over 125 present; this large number was made up of agents from stations between the cities of Quebec, Portland, and local railroad employees.

After the different subjects were disposed of by the different speakers, the meeting was open to any member present and much enthusiasm was shown by expressions of opinion and formal remarks by those present. The subject of Mr. E. Harwood, illustrated by stereopticon views, on the efficiency of handling cars was of much value to those present. Following is a program of the meeting:—

8.00-8.05 p.m. Chairman's Remarks. J. J. Connelly, Supt.

8.05-8.20 p.m. F. Price, Montreal, Supt. car service G. T. R. Subject:—Facts and figures dealing with per diem and setting forth the new continuous home route card arrangement.

8.20-8.45 p.m. Discussions and questions.

8.45-9.05 p.m. A. G. Thomason of Boston, commissioner New England demurrage commission of Boston. Subject:—National Car Demurrage Rules and their proper interpretation.

9.05-9.20 p.m. Discussions and questions.

9.20-9.30 p.m. C. P. Riddell of Montreal. Subject:—Description of our Fast Freight Manifest System and handling of reports connected therewith.

9.30-9.35 p.m. Discussions and questions.

9.35-9.45 p.m. E. Clibbon of Montreal. Subject:—Detailed explanations of the handling of interchange reports and conductors' journals in our general car accountants' office.

9.45-9.50 p.m. Answering enquiries arising from same.

9.50-10.00 p.m. E. Harwood of Montreal. Subject:—Station and office records and examples of the value of a Car Day. (Special word for men of car department.)

A few minutes for expressions of opinion in a general way and formal remarks by any who may feel so disposed.

Chairman will indicate manner of closing.

In the Dentist's Office.

"It is queer people get so frightened just about going to a dentist and having a tooth pulled."

"It is that, especially when you consider they always have their nerve with them."—Baltimore American.

An Insinuation.

"They tell me, Mrs. Convent, your daughter went through that reception in her honor without any faux pas."

"No such thing! She had as much of it as anybody that was there."—Exchange.

An Historic Painting Spoiled.

In the Mexican war Brigadier General Franklin Pierce of New Hampshire fainted while in action from the pain of an injury sustained when his horse fell on him. This incident—his fainting at a time when other people were getting killed—was used unmercifully to make Pierce a target for ridicule in later years when he ran for the presidency.—Hartford Times.

Her Luck.

"She's very homely, but doesn't seem to realize it."

"Hasn't she any women friends?"

Not Desired.

Having an enormous pain got her length, breadth and thickness about right, the woman heaved a sigh of relief. "No fourth dimension in mine, if you please!" she exclaimed with unmistakable feeling.

Some aver that the feminine mind is not attracted by metaphysics anyway.—Exchange.
